Cromer Shoal Chalk Beds Continuing to work together to protect our seas and support sustainable fisheries. Be part of our consultation on managing trawling in the Marine Conservation Zone (MCZ), see Eastern IFCA website for details www.eastern-ifca.gov.uk or call the Eastern IFCA office on 01553 775321. Eastern Inshore Fisheries and Conservation Authority Eastern IFCA's assessment has identified towed demersal Proposed restricted area to bottom-towed gear gear as potentially damaging Cromer Shoal Chalk Beds MCZ boundary to chalk reef and to peat and Eastern IFCA district boundary clay features of the MCZ Happisburgh More than 650 species found in Cromer Shoal Chalk Beds MCZ Increase trawling restriction This is the most extensive GREATER PIPEFISH Chalk rock structure in the MCZ supports an important local potting fishery

We are consulting in summer 2019. We value your participation in this consultation process. All responses will be taken into consideration when developing management and a summary of the consultation feedback will be available online.

Weybourne

Towed

Size of proposed closure in hectares

chalk reef in the UK

Gear