

HAVE YOUR SAY ON POST-BREXIT FISHERIES MANAGEMENT

You are invited to have your say on how post-Brexit fisheries management should work.

Seafish (the public body supporting the UK seafood industry) is seeking input from fishermen and other stakeholders to define objectives for new Fisheries Management Plans (FMPs) for brown crab and lobster. FMPs are a core part of the government's strategy for post-Brexit fisheries management – and we want to hear from you!

Details of two, upcoming stakeholder engagement events are below. These events will be in-person, and are open to anyone with an interest in English whelk or brown crab and lobster fisheries.
